

Letter of Recommendation

8 July 2025

To Whom It May Concern:

I am pleased to write this letter of recommendation for Kimson Pomento. During their time at OpenStore, I had the pleasure of supervising Kimson Pomento, and I can confidently say that they are a dedicated and highly capable professional.

Kimson Pomento consistently demonstrated a strong work ethic and a commitment to excellence in all their responsibilities. Whether working independently or as part of a team, they approached tasks with a high level of professionalism, attention to detail, and problem solving ability. Their ability to adapt quickly to new challenges and maintain composure under pressure was an asset to our team.

One of Kimson Pomento's standout qualities is their communication and interpersonal skills. They foster positive relationships with colleagues and clients alike, contributing to a collaborative and respectful work environment. Their proactive attitude and willingness to go the extra mile was often noted and appreciated.

I am confident that Kimson Pomento will bring the same level of dedication and skill to any organization they join. I highly recommend them for any position they pursue and believe they will make a valuable contribution to your team.

Please feel free to contact me at my email to dov@open.store if you require any additional information.

Sincerely,
